

George Carbert

George is from Red Lake Ontario and served 23 years with the Canadian Armed forces, and now resides in Airdrie Alberta. After the Canadian Armed forces George, worked a long career in mining, oil & gas as well as property management. George is an active member of the Army Navy Airforce Veterans (ANAVETS) and works to educate Veterans that there is hope and support out there for them. He and his wife Debi have two adult sons and three beautiful Granddaughters which occupy a lot of their spare time. George and his wife enjoy spending time camping in their RV.