

Leo Boyd

Leo served for 27 years in the Canadian Army and has worked for the past 29 years in several retail sales positions. In his retail sales positions, he learned to manage stock, increase sales and the importance of last contact and building a lasting relationship with the customer. He successfully completed Principles of Buying, Sep-Dec 2003; Principals of Transportation and Logistics Jan-Apr 2004; and Principals of Inventory and Operations Control Sep-Dec 2004. He was the Administrative Manager at the Canadian Embassy (Canadian Forces Liaison Staff) from 1986-1991. Completed first-year University through the University of Manitoba in 1983.